4. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with David Bushong, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and rescheduled the meeting for Mark Gitenstein, also of the Committee staff, and himself with [REDACTED] OGC, for Friday at 3:00 p.m.

I also delivered to Bushong notes from his meeting [REDACTED] and we discussed his trip at length. I told Bushong the Director would like to meet with Senator James B. Pearson (R., Kansas) to discuss the trip and Bushong said he was certain the Senator would appreciate that opportunity but would not be able to do it for at least two weeks.

41. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with Ed Levine, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and got further details on exactly what points he would like to cover in the meeting scheduled for 8 September regarding [REDACTED]. Levine also said he had questions regarding a [REDACTED] program and gave me the outline of his questions. I said I would try to have some answers for him after the meeting tomorrow but could give no assurances.

42. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met briefly with Mark Gitenstein, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to inform him of the 16 September FOIA hearing before the Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure, Senate Judiciary Committee. I told Gitenstein the Agency was concerned we were being singled out for criticism unfairly and that we might be in touch with Senator Joseph R. Biden (D., Del.) on this matter as he is a member of that Subcommittee.

43. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with Stan Taylor, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, who said he and Tom Moore, also of the Committee staff, would like to meet with [REDACTED] C/EA/Sup/B& [REDACTED] at 10:00 a.m. on 12 September to raise some questions they have about the [REDACTED] financial records.

44. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, who said the Committee had received several letters regarding [REDACTED], one of which included a cronology much more detail than the Committee had previously received. He asked that Ed Levine and Jean Evans, of the Committee staff, meet with DDO officials tomorrow to discuss recent developments in the case. I asked Miller about his plans for a 14 September briefing by Admiral Stansfield Turner and he said he had contacted B.F. McMahon, EA/DCI, and they had agreed on 21 September instead.
